

L'exception a un nom

Assérac, Pointe de Pen Bé

réf. LAT0152

area : 210 m²

ground : 681 m²

number of pieces : 13

number of rooms : 6

fine xviiiith century mansion, former lodging of the parson of the village, erected in a lovely garden enclosed by high granite walls. the 215 m² spann over three levels. ground floor ; an entrance hall with flagstone floor, a pleasant lounge, a library with fitted bookshelves, a dining room, the kitchen and a bathroom. on the first floor a lovely bedroom with its 'boudoir', woodwork, parquet floor and chimney. three other bedrooms, one in a row, a shower room with wc. stone outbuilding in the west garden. in the heart of a village nearby the town of guingamp. paris at 2h35 by tgv train, the beaches and marinas at about 30 minutes. refurbishing necessary. ..

You Advisor

Philippe LECOMTE

06 71 66 94 25

philippe@demeuresdulittoral.com